

NATHAN SHANLEY

Ferris State University
227 S. Warren Avenue
Big Rapids, MI 49307
Phone: (989) 329-7690

OBJECTIVE: To obtain a summer internship to further my professional experience and knowledge of surveying engineering

EDUCATION

- Bachelor of Science, Surveying Engineering, Ferris State University, (May 2011)
- Associate in Applied Science, General Business, Ferris State University, (May 2011)
- Certified in Density Technology

PROFESSIONALISM

- Member of Burt and Mullet Chapter of American Congress on Surveying & Mapping
- Student member of Michigan Society of Professional Surveyors.
- Student member of the American Congress on Surveying and Mapping

WORK HISTORY

Summer 08 Construction Aide, Michigan Department of Transportation

- Performed rapid static Global Positioning work with adjustments of data
- Established second order vertical control
- Aided and performed miles of leveling
- Aided in soil borings
- Performed topographic work using real time kinematic Global Positioning systems and total stations with a 360 degree prism

Summer 07 Construction Aide, Michigan Department of Transportation

- Aided in soil borings all over northern Michigan
- Became certified in density technology
- Established second order vertical control
- Performed cross sectioning
- Aided and performed miles of leveling in the Michigan Department of Transportation North Region.

Summer 03-06 Builder Assistant, Pat Shanley Builder- Houghton Lake, Michigan

- Conducted maintenance and cleaning of the jobsite.
- Performed field work including framing and some finish carpentry.

STEWARDSHIP

- Camp counselor for the Houghton Lake Junior High School 6th grade camp in May 2005
- 2006 Disability Advocates for Kent County Walk and Roll contestant

REFERENCES

- Available upon request

