

BURT & MULLETT STUDENT CHAPTER
AMERICAN CONGRESS ON SURVEYING AND MAPPING
Minutes from April 3, 2007

- 11:05: Meeting called to order.
- Attendance passed around.
- Matt's introduction
  - No more I.O.U.s. Pay Up!
  - Please return golf outing sign-up sheets ASAP
  - Please pay any late dues.
- Bill Wright and Joe Dibartolo from Manhard
  - Brief introduction to themselves and where they work
  - Sign up for interviews after the meeting
  - Office Locations (Growing quickly out West)
    - Firms follow residential development out West
    - Work with IDOT a lot
    - Also perform mining surveys
      - Conveyor layout, pre/post volume calculations
  - History of the company
  - Surveyors, Land Planners, Land Architects, and Engineers
  - Surveying
    - Use only newer instruments
    - Perform normal gauntlet of surveying work.
    - Do all the design work of all surveys
    - Lots of construction work/layout
    - Unique Work/Jobs
      - Mine Surveys
      - Lake Surveys
      - Master Plan of Communities
  - Description of Manhard benefits and personal professional development
  - Q & A Session
    - Starting salary is very competitive, especially for surveyors
    - Upon hire, first work is in the field
      - Last for at least a year, then promoted to crew chief
      - Get to choose whether or not to do office work
    - Offer tuition reimbursement for advanced degrees
    - Continuing education credits for 24 hours
    - Not many traveling jobs
    - Summer interns can obtain housing
- 11:40: End of meeting.